

MEIWeekly.

On 6 March 2025, the White House said that an Egyptian-led plan for Gaza did not meet the expectations of US President Donald Trump, who proposed the mass displacement of Palestinians from the war-battered territory. Meanwhile, Mr Trump issued a "last warning" to Hamas to release all hostages being held in Gaza. Photo: AFP

WHAT'S HOT: MEI PUBLICATIONS, PODCASTS, & MORE

READ: MEI's Insight 316 examines how the Gulf states' rapprochement with Tehran is being challenged by the Iran-Israel conflict and shifting US policies under the Trump administration. Read the article here.

WHAT'S NEWS: THE BIG HEADLINES THIS WEEK

US Rejects Egypt-Led 'Arab Plan' for Gaza

The Trump administration said that the President stands by his own vision which includes expelling the territory's Palestinian residents and transforming it into a "riviera" owned by the US. It also reaffirmed that the rebuilding of Gaza should be free from Hamas.

Hard-liners Hobble Iranian President, Stoking Political Crisis

With Tehran already wounded economically and diplomatically, hard-liners forced out two top officials and blocked talks with the US, freezing President Masoud Pezeshkian's agenda. This has thrown his government into turmoil, raising questions about its survival.

Mr Pezeshkian speaking in Parliament on 2 March 2025, during impeachment proceedings against the country's finance minister. Reports also suggested that more Iranian ministers face possible impeachment. Photo: AFP

Deadly Clashes Pose Test for Syria's New Leaders

At least 16 security personnel were killed in the Latakia Province on Thursday by gunmen loyal to Syria's ousted dictator Bashar al-Assad. It was one of the deadliest clashes for Syria's new leaders since Assad's government fell, and was followed by protests in the coastal region.

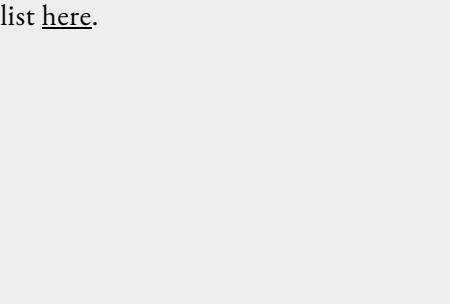

"Russia believes that the US and Iran should resolve all problems through negotiations, and that Moscow is ready to do everything in its power to achieve this." Photo: AFP

CALENDAR: MEI EVENTS

MEI Salon - The Living Colours of Jewish Art

From Singapore to nations worldwide, Jewish artists have left a lasting creative legacy. MEI's annual salon event celebrates this artistic vibrancy, where colour, movement, and innovation converge in a dynamic showcase of Jewish art. This event will be held on Thursday, 10 April 2025, from 3pm to 4:30pm (SGT) at 91 Tanjong Road. To sign up, click here.

"Russia believes that the US and Iran should resolve all problems through negotiations, and that Moscow is ready to do everything in its power to achieve this." Photo: AFP

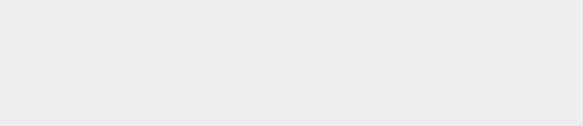

LOOK AHEAD: WHAT TO KEEP A WATCH ON

Abbas Says PA Ready to Hold Elections Within a Year

On Tuesday, at an Arab League summit in Cairo to discuss the reconstruction of Gaza, Palestinian

Authority President Mahmoud Abbas said he was ready to hold presidential and parliamentary elections within the year—if circumstances allow.

He also announced the creation of a vice-presidential position in his Fatah party and amnesty for expelled members of his Fatah party. Photo: AFP

Russia Agrees to Broker Tehran-Washington Talks

US President Donald Trump reportedly reached out to Russian President Vladimir Putin in a phone call to set up conversations with Iran about its nuclear programme and support for proxies that are hostile to the White House, sources said.

"Russia believes that the US and Iran should resolve all problems through negotiations, and that Moscow is ready to do everything in its power to achieve this." Photo: AFP

Follow us for the latest updates!

Can't make it to our events? Listen in your own time!

Subscribe to our mailing list here.

Copyright © 2025 Middle East Institute, National University of Singapore.

All rights reserved. Middle East Institute Events and Publications.

Our mailing address is:

Middle East Institute, National University of Singapore
29 Heng Mui Keng Terrace

Block B, #06-06

Singapore 119620

Singapore

Singapore